Dear Shima,

We are writing to inform you of a precautionary product recall involving the following model of defibrillation for Zoll AED: F7987W (adult model for Zoll AED).

This action has been taken voluntarily and as precaution, following our commitment to the highest standard of quality and patient safety. Indeed we have recently identified a potential non-conformity that could impact the product's performance under specific condition.

In order to proceed and send you all the documentation and instructions, we kindly ask you how we can notify this recall to the Regulatory Authority in your country, is there a contact or a specific way to inform the authority?

The pads involved in the recall shipped to your company are 2 Lots - 3.270 units - (we will send detailed information and specific form after that you have provided the above requested information about the way to notify to authorities in your country).

We wait for your kind reply and thank you for your cooperation

Kind regards
